Comment: Air Force technical intelligence has for some time reported that the MIG-15 is believed capable of a combat radius of more than 400 nautical miles if large tanks (approximately 150 gallons) were used. The above sighting, if confirmed, would be the first evidence that this potential has been reached. The combat radius of all MIG-15 equipped with 33 gallon external wing tanks is estimated to be about 250 nautical miles.

Comment: With the pipeline from the Kirkuk oil field to the refinery at Haifa closed, Iraq can export only 7,000,000 tons of oil per year. The completion of this new 30-inch pipeline will increase export capacity to nearly 20 million tons equivalent to two-thirds of Iran's 1950 output. Approved For Release 2004/08/03 : CIA-RDP79T00975A000300170001-9 25X1A Soviet Embassy and Trade Delegation personnel in Kabul are moving out of their embassy compound to take up residence in various parts of the city and are mingling to a greater degree with the local populace. Communist publications are now circulating in Kabul and Jalalabad, and there have been rumors of Communist infiltration into the Afghan Army. Furthermore, the Communist Iranian Tudeh Party has been reportedly active in the Herat province of northwest Afghanistan. Comment: Growing internal political unrest, which stems from dissension within the ruling governmental clique and from the recent development of an anti-government liberal movement, makes Afghanistan a particularly inviting target for Soviet exploitation. Soviet diplomats in Afghanistan, many of whom speak fluent Persian or Pushtu, are well equipped to mingle with the Afghan populace. WESTERN EUROPE 25X1A Sforza expected to leave Italian Foreign Ministry: Although the domestic political situation remains obscure following the Italian Cabinet's resignation, there is a growing indication that Foreign Minister Sforza will be replaced. According to well-informed Foreign Office circles, however, the final decision has not been made. Comment: The replacement of Count Sforza. an elder statesman with little political following within Italy, has long been expected. His conduct of foreign affairs has been widely criticized, particularly by nationalistic rightist groups, on the grounds that it has been ineffective in defending Italian interests. Earlier reports have indicated that Sforza might negotiate a Trieste settlement with Yugoslavia and then be sacrificed in order to appease Italian public opinion. 25X1A

Approved For Release 2004/08/03: CIA-RDP79T00975A000300170001-9 8. West German Socialists again criticize US, and British labor units: 25X1A The Social Democratic Party in Western Germany recently launched another bitter attack against the German Labor Service Units maintained in the US and UK zones. The Social Democrats criticize the fact that the members of these labor and guard units are removed from German jurisdiction, and allege that there has been a tendency to transform the units into a paramilitary organization. The party further charges that the Allies have reorganized the labor units secretly and without consulting the Bundestag, and it demands immediate action to assure that the units do not become auxiliary troops. Government party deputies agree with the Socialists that action with respect to 25X1 the labor units must not prejudge the question of German rearmament. Comment: The US and UK together maintain about 86,000 German and other employees under contract to guard installations and provide technical assistance. Although these units are not intended as cadres for a German armed force, the USSR has protested their existence. The Social Democratic Party, which is opposing German rearmament, suspects that an attempt may be made to create armed forces "through the back door"; it therefore opposes the US-UK labor units, as well as the proposal to double the size of the Federal border police. 25X1A 9. Franco confirms long-awaited Spanish cabinet shakeup: General France has personally informed the US Ambassador in Madrid that a general reorganization of his government will be announced on 19 July. Only four of the present cabinet officers will be retained. They are: Minister of Labor Jose Antonio de Giron, Minister of Foreign Affairs Alberto Martin Artajo, 25X1A - 7 -

25X1A

Minister of the Interior Blas Perez Gonzalez, and Minister of Air Eduardo Gonzalez Gallarza. Lieutenant General Agustin Munoz Grandes is reliably mentioned as the new Minister of the Army.

Meanwhile, press reports describe the contemplated cabinet changes as a concession to public opinion in democratic countries.

Comment: This shakeup indicates a general tightening of the internal structure of the regime in order to obviate the criticism of inefficiency and corruption throughout the various governmental departments. Minister of Labor Giron has reportedly told the cabinet that if Spain's economic crisis is to be understood abroad, there must be some freedom for public criticism within Spain; otherwise, he claimed, it was logical for the US to hesitate to assist in Spain's economic rehabilitation. Giron is generally regarded as the government member with the greatest influence over the workers within the Falangist organization.

Restention of Martin Artajo signifies Franco's eagerness to retain the support of the active Catholic elements in Spain.

Lt. General Munoz Grandes is one of Franco's ablest and most trusted generals.
